This policy applies to all NEWPORT YACHT CLUB programs and organization functions including social events.

Workplace harassment means engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker/member in a workplace/club that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome or workplace sexual harassment. Workplace sexual harassment means:

1. engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker/member in a workplace/club because of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression, where the course of comment or conduct is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome, or
2. making a sexual solicitation or advance where the person making the solicitation or advance is in a position to confer, grant or deny a benefit or advancement to the worker and the person knows or ought reasonably to know that the solicitation or advance is unwelcome;

Reasonable action taken by the Director/Manager relating to the management and direction of workers/members or the workplace/club is not workplace harassment.

Employees/members are encouraged to formally report any incidents of workplace harassment to the President (Commodore) of the club. Should this individual be inappropriate given the nature of the complaint any member of the Board of Directors is prepared to assist employees or volunteers with formal reports of incidents of harassment. No one is to be penalized or disciplined for reporting an incident or for participating in an investigation involving workplace harassment.

All complaints or incidents of workplace harassment will be investigated and dealt with in a fair, respectful and timely manner. Information provided about an incident or about a complaint will not be disclosed except as necessary to protect workers/members to investigate the complaint or incident, to take corrective action or as otherwise required by law.
